

business day

FRANCIS SPECKER/THE RECORD

A new Frontier

Workers put the finishing details on the $24 million Frontier Insurance building in Rock Hill. The company's 240 employees moved into the three-story, 118,000-square-foot office building this week. Harry Rhu- len, senior vice president, said Monday that they were still waiting for a certificate of occupancy but were confident the problem could be worked out.